BIG BANK ROBBERY.

Mexican Concern Said To Have Been Looted of $300,000.

El Paso, Tex., March 4—A dispatch received from Chihuahua, Mexico, on Monday afternoon, says that the Banco de Minero, owned by Ambassador Creel, has been robbed of $300,000.

No particulars have yet been learned. Officers here, however, have been detailed to watch the border closely. The bank notes taken are in denominations of $1,000, $500 and $50.

A telegram from Governor Creel, of Chihuahua, was received by Chief Ponce, of Jurarez, stating that a liberal reward had been offered for the capture of the bank robbers, and asked that the United States immigration authorities be requested to keep a lookout for suspicious characters and for bills of the denominations missing.

The immigration authorities here have issued instructions to their border riders and to the officials at the stations along the line to keep a lookout for the missing bills.

RECEIVED BLACK HAND NOTE.

Italian at Ensley, Ala., Concludes to Return to Native Land.

Birmingham, Ala., March 4.—Tony Spallino, an Italian, who through hard work and industry, amassed quite a fortune at Enlsey, the steel suburb of Birmingham, has returned to Italy, selling out all his possessions here and leaving rather suddenly.

It is said he received a letter from the Black Hand demanding $1,500, which is said to have caused his sudden decision to return to his native home. He was well thought of in Ensley. This is the fourth black hand letter received by wealthy Italians in the Birmingham district recently.

REGARD TRIP AS IMPRUDENT.

Fear Expressed Over King Alfonso's Trip to Barcelona.

Madrid, March 4.—Considerable anxiety is manifested in this city for the safety of King Alfonso and Queen Victoria on their coming visit to Barcelona, which has been fixed for March 12th.

The newspapers regard the trip as imprudent in view of the agitation created by the recent bomb tragedies in that city and blame Premier Maura for not finding a pretext for cancelling the proposed journey to Barcelona.

Rueff Wants Reimbursement.

San Francisco, March 4.—Abraham Rueff filed a suit against Judge Dunne, Rudolph Spreckels, District Attorney Lagdon, Detective Burns, Francis J. Heney and W. J. Biggy Monday for $4,659.95, alleging that this is the amount put up by him for his prison quarters, automobile hire and living expenses during the time that he was in charge of Elisor Briggs under the orders of Judge Dunne. Rueff claims to be able to prove that Chief of Police Biggy stated to him, after being elected chief of police, that unless he paid his own expenses he would be taken to jail.

Robertson Won Race.

New York, March 4.—Lawson Robertson, of the Irish-American Athletic club, won the 60-yard invitation race at the Sixty-Ninth regiment games in Madison Square Garden Monday night, defeating Dan Kelly, the western sprinter and holder of the world's 100-yard record. Kelly led for nearly half the distance, but Robertson outspeeded him toward the finish and breasted the string nearly a yard ahead.

Bishop Duncan Dead.

Nashville, Tenn., March 4.—A telegram was received here announcing the death of Bishop W. W. Duncan, of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, at his home at Spartanburg, S. C., at an early hour Monday morning. Bishop Duncan had been in ill health for some months. He was one of the most earnest men in the Southern Methodist church.

Tax on Stock Deals.

Washington, March 4.—An important bit of legislation was offered the house by Mr. Hepburn, of Iowa, through a bill imposing a tax of 50 cents per hundred shares on stock or on agreements to sell.

ATTACK ON SHIPPY

Chicago Police Investigating Attempted Assassination.

ARE RUNNING DOWN CLUES

Believed that the Young Russian Jew Who Attacked the Chief Had Accomplice in Planning Deed Known as the "Curly-Haired Boy."

Chicago, March 4.—Lazarus Averbuch, the young Russian Jew who on Monday attempted to assassinate Chief of Police Shippy and whom the chief killed, had, it is believed, a partner in his work who thus far is only known as the "Curly Haired Boy."

Two other men were arrested at midnight, but it is thought their connection with the case is, at most, remote. The search of Averbuch's library, which was made up largely of books on revolutionary subjects and lectures by prominent socialists and anarchists, the police found that the terrible deed of the morning was planned and carried out to the death by a dreaming Russian boy, whose mind was filled with hatred of the government in his own country, the burden of the peasants of the world, and the inflammatory ideas of remedying social conditions promulgated by the leaders of "liberal thought" in America.

The condition of mind to which he had come is shown by the fact that last week Averbuch planned to commit suicide with a young Jew with whom he had discussed his theories of the failure of life. This young Jew, who is the one mentioned above as "curly-haired," is thought by the police to have helped plan the murder of the chief. His name could not be learned, but every effort will be made to find him.

When the detectives entered the house at 218 Washburn avenue, where Averbuch lived, they found his sister Olga clearing away the dishes after a supper of cold meat and coffee.

The detectives unfolded a newspapet containing a picture of the dead man, and laid it before her.

"Is that your brother?" she was asked. And she replied, without any display of emotion or concern, that it was.

The police showed her a pair of shoes and asked her if they belonged to her brother. She said they did. Then she was told that her brother was under arrest for a crime, but not that he was dead.

"Have you got the other one?" was her first question after the shock had worn away.

"What other one?" Detective Randall asked.

Would Not Reveal Name.

"Oh, a curly haired young Jew he was studying with," she said. But she would not reveal the name of the curly haired young Jew. She refused to talk any more at that time.

From the landlord, H. Pine, the detectives learned that another young woman lived in the three rear rooms. Averbuch had represented that both were his sisters. Olga said she was his sister but that the other was not. The other young woman has not been found.

From the neighbors little could be learned of Averbuch and the two women. Mrs. Pine said that they had come to her house two months before and rented the three back rooms.

Berman, with William D. Siegel, a business partner, was arrested early Tuesday morning after the police had intercepted a telephone message. A sergeant was using the 'phone when the wires became crossed and he heard some one say to Berman:

"For God's sake, get out of town. They're on."

Siegel was released later after being severely questioned. The police say that they have received information that Berman's shop was the congregating place for a crowd of men who visited it nightly.

Olga Averbuch, the sister of the dead assassin, is being held at the woman's quarters at the Harrison street police station.

According to attendants at Augustana hospital, where Harry Shippy was taken Monday, having been shot by Averbuch, the young man is reported as having passed a good night. His condition had improved slightly during the night and he was resting quite comfortably. He slept two hours during the early morning.

Admits He Demanded Money.

Chicago, March 4.—Frank Zajicek was arrested early Tuesday charged with sending a threatening letter to a Roman Catholic clergyman, Procopius Nuzil, a prior of the Benedictine Fathers.

The prisoner, who is thrity-eight years old and lives at 584 Blue Island avenue, on the borders of the Ghetto district, admitted sending a demand for $1,000 to the priest, according to the police.

LOSES IN HIGH COURT.

Decision of Judge Speer Is Affirmed in Case of Macon Man.

Washington, March 4—Affirming the decision of the United States circuit court for the southern district of Georgia in the case of Thomas Battle, found guilty of murder but without capital punishment, the supreme court has held that the federal statute giving jurisdiction to the United States court in cases of murder in arsenals, dockyards, etc., also applies to that crime when committed in postoffices.

The law does not specifically mention postoffices or postoffice grounds, and the contention was made that the federal court was without jurisdiction to try Battle for killing another man in the postoffice at Macon, Ga.

BEHIND BARS AGAIN.

Barton, Alleged Cracksman, Who Escaped from Jail Recaptured.

Atlanta, March 4.—George Barton, the one-armed cracksman, charged with blowing a safe in the Bank of Sharon, at Sharon, Ga., and who made a sensational and daring escape from the Fulton county jail several weeks ago, in company with a fellow prisoner, John Harper, under indictment for two murders in Murray county, is again an inmate of the Tower.

Barton was arrested in Bessemer, Ala., last Saturday at midnight, just one and a half hours after his arrival in that place, and was brought to Atlanta by officers Monday.

Check for $1,000,000.

Chicago, March 4.—A check for one million dollars in payment of back taxes on the estate of the late Marshall Field was delivered to John R. Thompson, treasurer of Cook county Monday. The payment is made in accordance with an agreement entered into by the trustees of the estate with county officials several weeks ago by which suits aggregating $1,700,000 were compromised. The suits were filed after the inventory of the estate in the probate court had revealed that a large amount of securities were included in the lists upon which no taxes had been paid for several years.

Four Convicts Escape.

Birmingham, Ala., March 4.—Four negroes serving life sentences, made a bold and desperate and at the same time successful escape from the works of the Alabama Manufacturing company at North Birmingham, Monday. While going from the prisons to the works they made a dash for a fence, breaking down a plank. Guard Wal drop opened fire on them with a double-barreled gun, but missed them. With bricks the convicts staved the guard off, and before assistance came for him the men had gotten away.

Mysterious Memphis Murder.

Memphis, Tenn., March 4—Charles F. Miller, Jr., of 105 Sturges street, Mansfield, O., was murdered in a mysterious manner in the railroad yards here early Tuesday morning. His body was found shot through the heart, when switchmen investigated a muffled pistol report.

Orders 2½ Cent Rate.

Montgomery, Ala., March 4.—At the meeting of the railroad commission Monday an order was issued putting into effect 2½ cent passenger fares and statutory freight rates on the Coast Line and Southern railway lines on April 1, as per agreement of some time ago.

REPUBLICANS OF OHIO

State Convention Met on Tuesday at Columbus.

TO NOMINATE STATE TICKET

Also Elect Delegates at Large to the National Convention at Chicago and Adopt Resolutions Endorsing Candidacy of Secretary Taft.

Columbus, O., March 4.—Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock the republican state convention was called to order in Memorial hall for the nomination of a state ticket, to elect delegates at large to the national convention in Chicago and for the purpose of adopting strong resolutions of endorsement of the candidacy of William H. Taft for president of the United States.

The platform, which has already been outlined, will, it is understood, be such as the secretary of war will be willing to stand upon in the event of his nomination at Chicago. He has seen the original draft of the document, and it had also been the subject of discussion between him and President Roosevelt, and has, in all particulars which concern the nation at large, received the commendation of both.

In addition to the planks already mentioned there will be a recommendation in favor of the re-enactment of the employers' liability law, and an endorsement of the rate bill passed by congress, and which was opposed by Senator Foraker on the floor of the United States senate. The plank relating to the negroes will declare in favor of giving them all of their legal rights.

It was not expected Tuesday that the convention would do more than formally organize and prepare for the active work of Wednesday.

No contest is expected before the committee on resolutions. The delegates are, in fact, practically a unit on all questions of national import, and it is only over the nominations to the various state offices that there is a fight.

In this last respect, the convention bids fair to develop one of the freest and most unrestricted scrambles that has taken place in the state in many years. There is absolutely no prearranged list of nominations. The Taft political managers are keeping studiously out of the state question and are taking sides nowhere.

ONE KILLED; SEVERAL INJURED.

Wreck of Passenger Train on the Ft. Worth and Denver Road.

Alvord, Tex., March 4.—One man was killed and two seriously injured in a wreck of passenger train No. 19 on the Ft. Worth and Denver railroad, two miles south of here, Monday night. The dead:

The wreck was due to the spreading of the rails.

NO TIME EXTENSION.

Petitions Will Be Denied by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Washington, March 4.—The interstate commerce commission decided on Monday by unanimous vote to deny all petitions for the extension of time within which to comply with the so-called hours of service law—the nine-hour law.

The reasons will be stated in a few days in a report which is now in course of preparation.

Cargo of Powder Explodes.

Litchfield, Ill., March 4.—A cargo of powder carried by a Big Four train exploded Tuesday while the train was running at full speed, two miles from this place. Two men are reported fatally injured. The train was badly wrecked and several cars were burned. The concussion shook houses and shattered windows for many miles.

CONGRESSMAN LAMAR TO TALK HERE TODAY

Will Speak to Citizens on Political Issues Now Pending.

HE IS AN ELOQUENT SPEAKER

And His Remarks Will No Doubt Enlighten Those Who Hear Him on Many Points Which Are of Vital Interest to Florida and Floridians.

As has already been announced, Congressman W. B. Lamar, member of the Lower House of the National Congress from the third district at Washington, will address the citizens of Gainesville and Alachua county at the court house at 11 o'clock this morning, when a general invitation is extended to all, with a special request for the ladies to be present.

The occasion of Congressman Lamar's visit here at this time is on account of his candidacy for the United States Senate, and it is upon the important political issues of the day that he will speak. He is well acquainted with all issues which affect our people, because he has so ably and actively defended what he believed to be the rights of the people of Florida.

Congressman Lamar is a fine speaker, an excellent gentleman, and it is hoped that he will be greeted by a good audience this morning. Those who attend this meeting and hear him talk will no doubt be enlightened in a great many ways.

Remember, the address will be made at the court house, where comfortable seats may be had. It will begin at 11 o'clock, which assures the people that the speaking will be over in ample time for dinner.

Hon. J. M. Lamar, the Congressman's brother, has arrived in the city, and will mingle with his friends during the day.

NEW CIGAR FACTORY.

Rumored That Waldo Man Will Soon Establish Another Factory Here.

Realizing the great advantages of Gainesville as a manufacturing center, L. A. Geiger of Waldo has decided to establish a cigar factory here, which will give the city two cigar factories, the La Mantanzas, owned by H. S. Thomas, having been in successful operation here for the past eighteen months.

Mr. Geiger, who is a practical cigar maker of long experience, proposes to begin on a small scale at first, employing only three or four men, but believes, with the advantages afforded here, the business can eventually be built up to one of considerable magnitude.

All manufacturing enterprises are welcomed to Gainesville with open arms, and it is gratifying to know that, realizing this fact, they are coming almost every day.

Corinne Runkel Good.

The Corinne Runkel Company played the "Girl of the Sunny South" last night to a fair-sized audience and we do not hesitate in saying that this company is the equal if not better all the way around than any attraction we have had this season. Individually strong and collectively effective and entertaining, the company should enjoy a large audience during their stay here. Each player presents the best in his or her cast and it is hardly fair to any member to say who seemed to essay the vote of a star. Several strong specialties are put on between acts, the strongest of these being, "On the Road to Kimberley," and the contortion work of LaRose. We cannot give a detailed criticism of the individual talent in the cast but we will do this company the justice to say that they give the people their money's worth and deserve liberal patronage as well as encouragement. They will present an entirely new play tonight entitled "In The Tiger's Den."

Matinee Wednesday evening at 3 o'clock. School children 15 cents.—Bainbridge (Ga.) Post.

This favorite company will open a three-nights' engagement at the opera house tonight, presenting as the opening bill, the play referred to above.

Popular prices, 25, 50 and 75 cents. Tickets now on sale at Miller's.

FOUR GIRLS

Read What They Say.

Miss Lillian Ross, 530 East 84th Street, New York, writes: "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound overcame irregularities, periodic suffering, and nervous headaches, after everything else had failed to help me, and I feel it a duty to let others know of it."

Katharine Craig, 2355 Lafayette St., Denver, Col., writes: "Thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I am well, after suffering for months from nervous prostration."

Miss Marie Stoltzman, of Laurel, Ia., writes: "I was in a run-down condition and suffered from suppression, indigestion, and poor circulation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me well and strong."

Miss Ellen M. Olson, of 417 N. East St., Kewanee, Ill., says: "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me of backache, side ache, and established my periods, after the best local doctors had failed to help me."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

THE SOUTHERN LEAGUE.

Teams Will be Stronger This Year Than Last—Close Race Expected.

Judging from the number of players each manager of Southern League teams have on their list, it is safe to say that some mighty good articles of ball will be witnessed in that circuit this season. The magnets are sparing no time or expense in endeavoring to strengthen their teams.

Atlanta and New Orleans seem to have the best teams so far, but others, having some of the big league players, may be dangerous rivals for the flag. Nashville has three or four American League players, and no doubt will be a strong contender for the pennant. Mike Finn's Little Rock bunch looks well on paper, so does Birmingham and Montgomery, while Mobile, a newcomer in the league, by no means looks like a tail-ender. The manager of the Memphis aggregation says they will set a hot pace this season.

BEST OF PROOF

That Hyomei Will Cure All Forms of Catarrhal Diseases.

Testimonials could be printed by the thousand, many of them from Gainesville and nearby towns, saying that Hyomei absolutely cures all catarrhal troubles. The best proof of its unusual curative powers is the guarantee that J. W. McCollum & Co. give with every outfit they sell: "Money back if Hyomei does not do all that is claimed for it."

Hyomei is not a secret remedy. Its formula is freely given to physicians who want to know what they are using when they prescribe Hyomei. It is guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drug Law by Serial No. 1418.

There is no dangerous stomach drugging when Hyomei is used. Its healing medication is breathed through a neat pocket inhaler, reaching every part of the air passages, destroying all catarrhal germs and curing the disease.

APALACH. IS ALL RIGHT.

Col. Chubb Says the "Old Town on the Bay" is Making Good Now.

Hon. Henry S. Chubb, register of the United States land office and chairman of the Florida State Central Republican Committee, has returned from Apalachicola. It is not known just what the object of his mission was, but judging by the fact that his friend and co-worker, Hon. J. N. Coombs, National committeeman from Florida, is a resident and influential citizen, manufacturer and banker of Apalachicola, it is to be surmised that the mission was of important political significance.

Col. Chubb, who is one of the most affable men in the State, seemed particularly happy upon his return to Gainesville, and was in quite a talkative mood, which might be taken as an indication that the Republican wheels are working "just right." As a matter of course, the fellow on the outside must surmise these things, even the fact that Col. Chubb was on political business.

"Speaking of Apalachicola," remarked Col. Chubb, as he reposed comfortably in his chair, "I want to tell you now that town is all right. I never saw so much push and hustle among the people of a town the size of Apalach. in my life. Everybody seems to be hustling all the time, and the beauty of the whole thing is, everybody of every class, from the wee bit of a boy playing marbles in the street up to the old man who hobbles around by aid of a cane, has a good word for his town. It's a happy family in Apalach. and there is no wonder that they are all so well contented."

While absent Col. Chubb had the opportunity of meeting a number of his old friends, and the pleasure was mutual.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup

"A Cold or a Cough nearly always produces constipation—the water all runs to the eyes, nose and throat instead of passing out of the system through the liver and kidneys. For want of moisture the bowels become dry and hard."

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup relieves Colds by working them out of the system through a copious action of the bowels.

MRS. PONS BETTER.

Lady Who Had Misfortune to be Shot at Fairbanks is Doing Well.

Mrs. John Pons of Fairbanks, who had the misfortune to be shot by her sister-in-law while the two were playing with a shotgun which they thought to be unloaded a few days ago, and from the result of which it became necessary to amputate her right lower limb, is reported as getting along as nicely as possible under the circumstances, although the lady has suffered a great deal of pain.

The attending physician reports the condition of his patient good, and she will recover in due time.

This accident was deeply regretted by the numerous friends and acquaintances of Mrs. Pons, but not more so than the lady in the hands of whom the gun was discharged.

Alachua Hounds to Texas.

Alachua county is gaining a distinction as one of the best hound-raising sections in the South, with the result that this breed of canine is being shipped from Gainesville to every quarter in the United States.

The Alachua county hound, aside from being a neat and hardy animal, seems possessed of an unusually high degree of "scenting," is more fleet on foot than the average, and in all is more perfect than the same breed from other sections of the country.

Sheriff L. W. Fennell, who manifests a deep interest in the rearing of good hounds, shipped Wednesday to J. L. Boulware, Hempstead, Tex., a pair of as fine hound pups as ever left the State. Mr. Boulware, who is himself a fine judge of what a dog ought to be, is very favorably impressed with Sheriff Fennell's stock, as he has hunted fox behind his pack many a time. It goes without saying that Mr. Boulware will appreciate these canines very highly.

AT THE CHAUTAUQUA.

Crowds Not as Large as Hoped For, But Season Not Fully Begun.

The crowds at the Chautauqua sessions are not as large as had been hoped for, but the season is yet in its infancy, and it is anticipated that the interest will increase from day to day, as the program is very interesting.

The Bible lecture by Dr. Alexander Wednesday morning was full of interest. This was followed by a lecture in the School of Health and Domestic Science by Dr. Carolyn Geisel and her assistant.

In the afternoon the White Rose Orchestra gave another of its delightful concerts, after which there was a reading by Cora Mel Patten of Chicago. The Rose Orchestra appeared again in the evening, which was followed by a lecture, "Damon and Pythias," by Richard Wilkinson.

The program today will be as follows:

9:30 a. m., Biblical hour.

10:30 a. m., School of Health and Domestic Science.

3 p. m., Concert by Rose Orchestra, to be followed by interpretative reading, "Arms and the Man," by Cora Mel Patten.

8 p. m., Concert by Rose Orchestra, reading by Margaret Dell Adams, and lecture, "The Preacher and His Fun," by Rev. W. K. Piner.

No admission will be charged to the morning exercises.

And remember the next time you suffer from pain—caused by damp weather—when your head nearly bursts from neuralgia—try Ballard's Snow Liniment. It will cure you. A prominent business man of Hempstead, Texas, writes: "I have used your liniment. Previous to using it I was a great sufferer from rheumatism and neuralgia. I am pleased to say that now I am free from these complaints. I am sure I owe this to your liniment." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Goodwin in Politics.

The friends of J. A. Goodwin realize that he is "always into something," but will probably be surprised to learn that he is about to break into the political arena.

It is reported that Mr. Goodwin will be a candidate for alderman and his platform will be along the line of "squelching" the telephones on the square, and giving justice to those property owners who have been required to pave streets and put down sidewalks on the streets abutting their belongings.

If Mr. Goodwin makes the race on this platform, there is little doubt but that he will be elected.

FOR YOUR SUNDAY DINNER

½ cup English Walnut meats
½ doz. figs cut up fine.
1 10c package JELL-O, any flavor.
Dissolve the JELL-O in a pint of boiling water. When cool and just commencing to thicken stir in the figs and nuts. Serve with Whipped Cream. Delicious. The walnuts, figs and JELL-O can be bought at any good grocery. This makes enough dessert for a large family and is very economical.

Store-success is difficult to the merchant who finds good advertising difficult—and the two difficulties are about equal.

There is no doubt that most of the business world, outside of Wall Street, is opposed to the methods of President Roosevelt, even when they approve some of his policies.

Disraeli said that "Circumstances are the creatures of men." Since he wrote it, the statement has become more and more true. For advertising has come to the aid of man in his fight to rule events that used to rule him.

If you want the most reliable information about the tariff, you should write to Governor Douglas of Brockton, Mass., for his published speeches. They contain the strongest argument for tariff reform, supported by facts, even put forth by anyone.

The mayor of a Georgia city has resigned because he was expected to kiss the brides he married. He also left a tack on his seat for his successor by saying his reason for not wishing to kiss brides was his fear of contracting some disease.

W. F. Avant of Island Grove is a candidate for County Commissioner from District No. 5. Mr. Avant is well qualified to perform the duties of the office, and promises to faithfully do so if elected. His announcement will be found in today's paper.

President Gompers of the Federation of Labor declares that wages must not be reduced, but he must remember that labor is not protected by the Republican tariff, like the steel trust, and therefore labor is subject to the law of supply and demand regulating the price.

Out in Nebraska they still stand for Teddy, and no substitute will satisfy them. "The delegates to the Lancaster county convention of the Republican party," says The Lincoln Journal, "insisted on instructions for President Roosevelt for another term, and would listen to no compromise." They would not go on record for Taft for second choice, declaring there was no second choice.

TELL THE TRUTH.

The daily papers of the larger cities are publishing news of the opening of manufacturing plants which were closed during the panic and of thousands of men being again put to work in factories that had reduced their working force. While it is pleasant to record that business is improving it does not pay to try to force such improvement by misstatements. The National Glass Budget, published at Pittsburg, lets the cat out of the bag concerning the actual condition of affairs in that great manufacturing center when it editorially says:

"Four months ago, when mills and factories in and around Pittsburg were closing down or curtailing production daily and throwing into idleness thousands of workmen, local publishers lied nobly, under the mistaken idea that they knew it all and that the masses were not cognizant of what was going on around them. If an extra chore boy was put to work at one of our mills the addition was multiplied by 1,000 and the spurt industry had taken was announced under glaring head lines, but not a word did they say about the unfavorable phase of the situation—all of which was commendable and a credit to the framers of public opinion. Readers of the lies printed took their medicine in silence, believing that healthy conditions would speedily return and that with their advent the big dailies would feel warranted in emerging from the Ananias class. Business has improved somewnat; men thrown out of employment last fall are slowly but surely being called back to work again, but some of the dailies have reversed themselves and are harping on the calamity string in such a manner as cannot fail to have a bad effect on mercantile as well as industrial pursuits. One has even gone so far as to start a fund for the out-of-work, with its accompanying front page of calamity howling daily, which will doubtless cause labor to lose more money hourly than the donation hunters will be able to drum up in a week."

Why does the Associated Press and the "big dailies," which support Republican policies, try to deceive the people on what is actually happening? It is safe to say, as far as the Pittsburg papers are concerned, that they view the panic and the present business depression as an unanswerable argument against the tariff which protects the steel and other trusts.

The trusts may succeed in again becoming prosperous, but it will be, as before, at the expense of the people who pay high trust prices. Tariff reform is the only way that prosperity for the many can be brought about, and that is the issue that the organs of the protected interests are trying to obscure.

Secretary Metcalf has issued a statement in which he objects to the plans San Franciscoans are formulating for meeting the fleet with a squadron of excursion boats. This portion of the navy is apparently on exhibition only for the amusement of foreign ports.

The United States Supreme Court has gravely decided that "woman is in a class by herself." Isn't it comforting to have the highest judicial authorities confirm just what all of us have always known?

With a wonderful uniform and a name like Rudolph Fiddlesticks von Coingrabber, another Hungarian count has captured another American fortune with a woman attached.

The increase in the pay of members of the School Board and County Commissioners promises to result in an extra large crop of candidates for these offices.

THE MAN AND HIS JOB

By Herbert J. Hapgood.

One slap on the back is worth three kicks in the shins. Remember that the men in your employ are as conscientious about their work as you are about the business in general. They have their set-backs and discouragements and one cheerful word from headquarters is often better than a hundred call-downs.

The advertising manager of one of the big monthly magazines in the East makes it a point always to find something good in the daily reports of every one of his solicitors. He looks for something commendable in the day's work and never lets his man feel that he has failed entirely.

If an employe falls down on his job dismiss him without hesitation; but as long as he remains in your employ make him feel that his best efforts are appreciated. There are enough people to find fault and the whole world wears a big boot that is always ready to kick.

Make every employe in your concern feel that the boss is back of him. Remember that every word of encouragement is worth dollars and cents to you. Slap your man on the back and don't send him on the job feeling like a spanked child.

Governor Hughes of New York has Welsh, Irish, Scotch, English and Dutch blood in his veins. How does he propose to get the German Vote?

If the seven-minute parting kiss becomes a fashion how will people ever be able to get to the trains on time?

Nursing Mothers and Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken-down by over-work, exacting social duties, the too frequent bearing of children, or other causes, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the most potent, invigorating restorative strength-giver ever devised for their special benefit. Nursing mothers will find it especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting an abundant nourishment for the child. Expectant mothers too will find it a priceless boon to prepare the system for baby's coming and rendering the ordeal comparatively painless. It can do no harm in any state or condition of the female system.

Delicate, nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down distress low down in the abdomen, or from painful or irregular monthly periods, gnawing or distressed sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, see imaginary specks or spots floating before eyes, have disagreeable, pelvic catarrhal drain, prolapsus, anteversion or retro-version or other displacements of womanly organs from weakness of parts will, whether they experience many or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and a permanent cure by using faithfully and fairly persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This world-famed specific for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments is a pure glyceric extract of the choicest native, medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its make-up. All its ingredients printed in plain English on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce thus invites the fullest investigation of his formula knowing that it will be found to contain only the best agents known to the most advanced medical science of all the different schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments.

If you want to know more about the composition and professional endorsement of the "Favorite Prescription," send postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet treating of same.

You can't afford to accept as a substitute for this remedy of known composition a secret nostrum of unknown composition. Don't do it.

TO BUILD A HOME.

Prof. A. W. Blair Will Erect Elegant Home on West Liberty.

Prof. A. W. Blair, chemist at the Florida Experimental Station, is evidently well satisfied not only with his connection there, but with the city as well, as he recently purchased a desirable lot on West Liberty street, near the University grounds, and will at once begin the erection of a handsome, modern, two-story home on the same.

The contract for this home has been let, material is being delivered upon the ground, and the contractor states that he will begin work in earnest Monday.

When completed this will be one of the finest homes in that section of the city, and a credit to the owner.

LITERARY SOCIETY.

Literary Society of Gainesville High School Had Fine Meeting.

The second meeting of the Gainesville High School Literary Society was held in the auditorium yesterday afternoon at 2:30, and all those present enjoyed the nice program, which was both entertaining and instructive.

The exercises opened with the roll call, and all members responded with quotations from Byron, after which the following program was nicely carried out:

Life of Byron—Earle Kelley.

Debate—"That Necessity Is the Mother of Invention." Affirmative Henry Baker, Ida McDonald; Negative, Alexander Harper, Julia Bunch.

Recitation—Dallas Bowers.

Essay—Sam Mixson.

Current Events—Casper Peeler, Tom McBeath.

Newspaper—Dalton Rosborough.

The debate was well discussed on both sides, and almost every point possible was brought out. So closely was the subject debated that the judges were unable to render a decision for either side. All showed their ability as speakers, and we all agree with Henry Baker, that Earle Taylor is genuine. Why? Ask one of the members of the society.

CATARRH A SERIOUS FAR-REACHING BLOOD DISORDER

Even in its early stages Catarrh is almost intolerable, caused by the stuffy feeling in the nose, the buzzing noises in the ears, the continual "hawking and spitting" difficult breathing, etc. But when the blood becomes thoroughly polluted from the catarrhal matter, the inflammation extends to the bronchial tubes, causing hoarseness, and often an aggravating cough; the stomach is affected, resulting in dyspepsia, loss of appetite and strength, and gradually all the mucous membranes of the body become diseased and the system upset and deranged. Frequently the kidneys and bladder are attacked, and the constant passage of impure blood through the lungs, diseases these important members, and Catarrh terminates in Consumption. Catarrh is a deep-seated blood disease, and must be treated constitutionally, for it is beyond the reach of local treatment. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all the impure catarrhal matter and at the same time building up the entire system. It goes down and attacks the disease at its head, in the circulation, and removes every trace of the impurity that is causing the trouble. Then as rich, pure blood circulates through the body, the inflamed membranes commence to heal, the mucous discharges grow less and finally cease, and all the disagreeable and disgusting symptoms of Catarrh disappear. S. S. S. has no equal as a cure for this disease. It refines and purifies the entire circulation and repairs the damage done by Catarrh. Special book on Catarrh and any medical advice free.

PHOTOGRAPHY.

Photography today is an economic and social necessity in every community. It maintains the memory and affections of family life through the picture it makes, and which we could not now do without. How often is regret expressed that no picture exists of some friend or relative who is no longer with us! Sometimes, indeed, the camera has to intrude upon the sacredness of the death chamber itself when relatives feel that a photograph in such circumstances is better than none at all. Do not procrastinate. Be wise and "secure the shadow ere the substance fades."

You can get a picture from locket to life-size at Smith's Studio.

ALLEGED CONSPIRACY

Confession to Chicago Police Reveals Big Arson Plot.

SEVERAL ARRESTS ARE MADE

Revelations Have Brought to Light One of the Biggest Arson Plots Ever Coming to the Notice of the Police of the City of Chicago.

Chicago, March 4.—Confessions made by two former convicts to Fire Attorney Hogan Monday night in the office of Chief of Detectives O'Brien, revealed one of the biggest arson plots that has ever come to the notice of the Chicago police.

Joseph H. Mack, manager of a detective agency, is accused in the confessions of being the person who furnished the funds for carrying on the work. Another man, well known to the police for his connection with hotels of disrepute, is said to be the chief conspirator. Mack, it is said, acted as his agent. William Dempsey, one of the men who has confessed the alleged conspiracy, Thomas Kennedy and Mack, were arrested.

Fire Attorney Hogan charges that the prisoners made two attempts to destroy by fire two buildings where rubber goods were manufactured. The hotel keeper is engaged in the same business, and it was this competition, the police say, that is at the bottom of the arson plot.

Dempsey and Kennedy confess having received about $500 from Mack during the last three months for wrecking the rubber factories.

INDICTMENTS RETURNED.

St. Louis and San Francisco Road Charged with Granting Rebates.

St. Louis, Mo., March 4.—Indictments charging the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad with granting rebates and the Chapman and Dewey Lumber company of Kansas City, Mo., with accepting rebates were returned by the federal grand jury Tuesday.

There were thirteen counts in each of the indictments charging the 'Frisco Railroad company with giving rebates to the lumber company on that many shipments, and the lumber company with accepting the rebates.

The various counts are based on shipments of lumber alleged to have been made by the 'Frisco for the lumber company in April, May, June and July, 1905, from points in Arkansas to St. Louis.

High Officials Going Armed.

Chicago, March 4.—Following the attack on Chief Shippy, the high authorities in the city and local branches of the state made plans to prepare themselves for a repetition of the assassination attempt. Mayor Busse, Judge Kersten, of the criminal court, and Associate State's Attorney S. J. Short, all purchased revolvers during the day and prepared to resist any personal violence on the part of some person whose enmity they might incur by the performance of their duties.

The liabilities are $700,976, while its assets, which are readily available, are said to be $336,800.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE.

One of the Best Meetings Ever Held Was That at Melrose.

Editor Sun: Last Saturday and Sunday the town of Melrose was blessed with one of the best quarterly meetings in its history. Our Presiding Elder, Rev. Francis R. Bridges, was with us both days, preaching four very strong, helpful sermons.

Large congregations sat under his ministry and felt that they were being drawn nearer to God by the spirituality of the man in the pulpit.

Every church on the charge was represented except one.

The reports rendered in the quarterly conference were very encouraging.

The stewards reported that they had made the assessment for the support of the pastor $1,000. The presiding elder stated that the Melrose circuit was, at present, the best circuit in the Florida conference. The people are proud of this fact, and are going to try, by God's help, to keep it the best. The people of Melrose deserve credit for the very excellent manner in which they entertained the quarterly conference.

A long table had previously been arranged in the church yard, and on Saturday it was laden down with good things, where all ate to their hearts' content.

The pastor's heart was made glad in the afternoon by the large congregation which attended the conference session.

A Woman's Home Mission Society has recently been organized in Melrose with thirteen members and many more to be added.

The church was beautifully decorated on Saturday afternoon by the ladies and made to present the appearance of Easter.

The pastor's report showed that during the past two months he had driven in his buggy 375 miles, made 102 pastoral visits, preached 21 sermons, conducted eight prayer meetings, and looked after many other interests of the church. Our prospects are bright; our opportunities are great, and our prayer to God is that many souls may be brought to Christ this year.

Our next quarterly meeting will be in the beautiful town of Hampton, and we are looking forward to that time with great expectations.

Fraternally,

T. L. Z. BARR, P. C.

Melrose, Fla., March 4, 1908.

TO BUILD A HOME.

Prof. A. W. Blair Will Erect Elegant Home on West Liberty.

Prof. A. W. Blair, chemist at the Florida Experimental Station, is evidently well satisfied not only with his connection there, but with the city as well, as he recently purchased a desirable lot on West Liberty street, near the University grounds, and will at once begin the erection of a handsome, modern, two-story home on the same.

When completed this will be one of the finest homes in that section of the city, and a credit to the owner.

Alachua Hounds to Texas.

Alachua county is gaining a distinction as one of the best hound-raising sections in the South, with the result that this breed of canine is being shipped from Gainesville to every quarter in the United States.

The Alachua county hound, aside from being a neat and hardy animal, seems possessed of an unusually high degree of "scenting," is more fleet on foot than the average, and in all is more perfect than the same breed from other sections of the country.

Sheriff L. W. Fennell, who manifests a deep interest in the rearing of good hounds, shipped Wednesday to J. L. Boulware, Hempstead, Tex., a pair of as fine hound pups as ever left the State. Mr. Boulware, who is himself a fine judge of what a dog ought to be, is very favorably impressed with Sheriff Fennell's stock, as he has hunted for behind his pack many a time. It goes without saying that Mr. Boulware will appreciate these canines very highly.

ATTACK ON SHIPPY

Chicago Police Investigating Attempted Assassination.

ARE RUNNING DOWN CLUES

Believed that the Young Russian Jew Who Attacked the Chief Had Accomplice in Planning Deed Known as the "Curly-Haired Boy."

Chicago, March 4.—Lazarus Averbuch, the young Russian Jew who on Monday attempted to assassinate Chief of Police Shippy and whom the chief killed, had, it is believed, a partner in his work who thus far is only known as the "Curly Haired Boy."

Two other men were arrested at midnight, but it is thought their connection with the case is, at most, remote. The search of Averbuch's library, which was made up largely of books on revolutionary subjects and lectures by prominent socialists and anarchists, the police found that the terrible deed of the morning was planned and carried out to the death by a dreaming Russian boy, whose mind was filled with hatred of the government in his own country, the burden of the peasants of the world, and the inflammatory ideas of remedying social conditions promulgated by the leaders of "liberal thought" in America.

The condition of mind to which he had come is shown by the fact that last week Averbuch planned to commit suicide with a young Jew with whom he had discussed his theories of the failure of life. This young Jew, who is the one mentioned above as "curly-haired," is thought by the police to have helped plan the murder of the chief. His name could not be learned, but every effort will be made to find him.

The detectives unfolded a newspaper containing a picture of the dead man, and laid it before her.

"Is that your brother?" she was asked. And she replied, without any display of emotion or concern, that it was.

The police showed her a pair of shoes and asked her if they belonged to her brother. She said they did. Then she was told that her brother was under arrest for a crime, but not that he was dead.

"Have you got the other one?" was her first question after the shock had worn away.

"What other one?" Detective Randall asked.

"Oh, a curly haired young Jew he was studying with," she said. But she would not reveal the name of the curly haired young Jew. She refused to talk any more at that time.

From the landlord, H. Pine, the detectives learned that another young woman lived in the three rear rooms. Averbuch had represented that both were his sisters. Olga said she was his sister but that the other was not. The other young woman has not been found.

From the neighbors little could be learned of Averbuch and the two women. Mrs. Pine said that they had come to her house two months before and rented the three back rooms.

Berman, with William D. Siegel, a business partner, was arrested early Tuesday morning after the police had intercepted a telephone message. A sergeant was using the 'phone when the wires became crossed and he heard some one say to Berman:

"For God's sake, get out of town. They're on."

Siegel was released later after being severely questioned. The police say that they have received information that Berman's shop was the congregating place for a crowd of men who visited it nightly.

Olga Averbuch, the sister of the dead assassin, is being held at the women's quarters at the Harrison street police station.

According to attendants at Augustana hospital, where Harry Shippy was taken Monday, having been shot by Averbuch, the young man is reported as having passed a good night. His condition had improved slightly during the night and he was resting quite comfortably. He slept two hours during the early morning.

Admits He Demanded Money.

Chicago, March 4.—Frank Zajicek was arrested early Tuesday charged with sending a threatening letter to a Roman Catholic clergyman, Procopius Nuzil, a prior of the Benedictine Fathers.

The prisoner, who is thrity-eight years old and lives at 584 Blue Island avenue, on the borders of the Ghetto district, admitted sending a demand for $1,000 to the priest, according to the police.

Lynch and District Deputy Grand Chancellor G. P. Morris of Gainesville were present, besides other prominent Knights of the district. A grand program was carried through, after which a sumptuous banquet was served.

The High Springs minstrel troupe played in Alachua Friday night to a large and appreciative audience. They are said by competent critics to equal, if not excel, the best of professionals. The members of the troupe are as fololws: Ray Witherspoon, manager, H. L. Futch, E. H. Quarterman, W. N. Davidson, Ben Wiles, Willie Hall, Hinton Blackshear, T. B. Osteen, J. Floyd, Miss Stella Bexley, Miss Maud Thomas, Miss Martha McDowell. The music was the latest and most popular productions and much of the success of the troupe is due to the accompanist, Miss Maud Thomas.

Mrs. Stevens and Miss Dora Stevens of Troy, Tenn., mother and sister of Mrs. J. D. Neal, after a pleasant visit in High Springs, have gone to Gainesville, to be the guests of Mrs. L. C. Gracy.

MELROSE NEWS.

Melrose, March 4.—Rev. T. R. Bridges, P. E., was in charge of the quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church held here Saturday and Sunday. All services were well attended, the Sunday morning congregation being very large.

REPUBLICANS OF OHIO

State Convention Met on Tuesday at Columbus.

TO NOMINATE STATE TICKET

Also Elect Delegates at Large to the National Convention at Chicago and Adopt Resolutions Endorsing Candidacy of Secretary Taft.

Columbus, O., March 4.—Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock the republican state convention was called to order in Memorial hall for the nomination of a state ticket, to elect delegates at large to the national convention in Chicago and for the purpose of adopting strong resolutions of endorsement of the candidacy of William H. Taft for president of the United States.

The platform, which has already been outlined, will, it is understood, be such as the secretary of war will be willing to stand upon in the event of his nomination at Chicago. He has seen the original draft of the document, and it had also been the subject of discussion between him and President Roosevelt, and has, in all particulars which concern the nation at large, received the commendation of both.

In addition to the planks already mentioned there will be a recommendation in favor of the re-enactment of the employers' liability law, and an endorsement of the rate bill passed by congress, and which was opposed by Senator Foraker on the floor of the United States senate. The plank relating to the negroes will declare in favor of giving them all of their legal rights.

It was not expected Tuesday that the convention would do more than formally organize and prepare for the active work of Wednesday.

No contest is expected before the committee on resolutions. The delegates are, in fact, practically a unit on all questions of national import, and it is only over the nominations to the various state offices that there is a fight.

In this last respect, the convention bids fair to develop one of the freest and most unrestricted scrambles that has taken place in the state in many years. There is absolutely no prearranged list of nominations. The Taft political managers are keeping studiously out of the state question and are taking sides nowhere.

Washington, March 4.—The interstate commerce commission decided on Monday by unanimous vote to deny all petitions for the extension of time within which to comply with the so-called hours of service law—the nine-hour law.

The reasons will be stated in a few days in a report which is now in course of preparation.

Litchfield, Ill., March 4.—A cargo of powder carried by a Big Four train exploded Tuesday while the train was running at full speed, two miles from this place. Two men are reported fatally injured. The train was badly wrecked and several cars were burned. The explosion could be heard and shocks were felt for ten miles.

ARTHUR L. GLASS TO SUCCEED J. B. CUTLER

As General Superintendent of the Tampa and Jacksonville Ry.

ASSUMED HIS DUTIES SUNDAY

Mr. Glass is Old Railroad Man of Broad Experience, Having at One Time Been Division Superintendent of Atlantic Coast Line.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

Arthur L. Glass, one of the most widely-known of the younger railroad men in this section of the South, has assumed charge of the Tampa and Jacksonville railroad, succeeding J. B. Butler, who for the past year has been the general superintendent of the road.

Mr. Glass' appointment, over the signature of First Vice-President A. P. Stuckey, went into effect on the 1st inst., although the appointment was announced by circular letter on February 20th.

Mr. Cutler is an efficient railroad man, but, owing to the fact that he is largely interested in the ice manufacturing business in this State, resigned his position in order that he might devote more attention to his personal affairs.

There is no more widely-known railroad man in Florida than Mr. Glass, who succeeds Mr. Cutler. He has been connected with railroad life in Florida for the past fifteen years, during which time he worked himself up from the dispatcher's table to a division superintendency of the Atlantic Coast Line, which position he resigned a little more than a year ago to accept a position with the Tampa Northern, then building, and for which a great future was promised. The financial crisis came along, work was suspended on this great railroad project, when Mr. Glass severed his connection with the Tampa Northern and established an insurance business in Palatka. His fondness for railroading was too great, however, and he accepted the appointment of general superintendent of the Tampa and Jacksonville, to succeed Mr. Cutler.

Mr. Glass and family resided here for several years, and friends will be glad to welcome them back again.

REAL ESTATE DEAL.

Another important real estate deal of desirable residence property has been made in this city, which is evidence of the confidence being manifested in Gainesville by outsiders. This is a deal in which F. J. Hammond, the merchant of Hawthorn, has come into possession of the fine home for some years owned and occupied by Mrs. Annie Brown, 205 West Main street N. It is one of the handsomest and most conveniently located homes in the city, being only one block removed from the square, and on one of the most prominent thoroughfares.

Letter to Gainesville Furniture Co., Gainesville, Fla.

Dear Sirs: Ten years ago, there was one pure paint and 200 adulterated; there are now eight pure, 200 adulterated, about half of the latter short-measure besides.

There is still but one best, and the difference is ten gallons Devoe goes as far as eleven next best—$5—in every ten gallons.

A new word has come up in paint; it is strong. Strong paint goes further and wears longer; weak paint takes more gallons and wears-out sooner.

The proper cost of a 10-gallon job is $50. Paint that takes 11 gallons makes it $55. Paint that takes 12 gallons makes it $60. Paint that takes 13 gallons makes it $65. Paint that takes 20 gallons makes it $100.

The $50 job wears twice as long as the $100. These figures are not precise; they are round. The 10-gallon paint is Devoe. Yours truly, 48 F. W. DEVOE & CO.

P. S.: The S. J. Thomas Co. sell our paint.

IN NEW QUARTERS.

G. W. Hyde Company Has Finest Store in Middle Florida.

Mr. J. D. Gardner, the affable manager of The G. W. Hyde Dry Goods Company, has just reason to feel proud of the commodious quarters his company are now occupying in the new Hill building, which is without doubt the finest store in Middle Florida.

There are two floors of 60x100 feet each, and the entire front and north side of the first story is of plate glass, affording every facility for displaying the handsome goods carried by this mammoth establishment. Mr. Gardner has not as yet had sufficient time to dress the display windows as he desires to, but the handsome line of goods shown therein was the center of attraction Saturday. It is the best lighted store in the State, and as an evidence of this fact, though it was rather hazy Saturday, at 5:30 p. m. it was not necessary to turn on a light.

The first floor is occupied by the dry goods, notions and men's furnishings departments and on the second floor is carried everything in the line of ladies' fine ready-to-wear goods, fine millinery, rugs, curtains and mattings.

The establishment is equipped with every comfort and convenience to be found in a well-appointed home, and visitors are as welcome to their use as if they were at home. This is something that the ladies will appreciate.

The Sun congratulates Manager Gardner, The Hyde Company and the people of Gainesville upon having such an establishment in our midst. The building was erected especially for this firm, according to their directions, and it is a credit to the designers and the city.

Visitors will always be shown through the establishment with pleasure.

Misfortune of a Negro Prisoner in Jail at Alachua Sunday.

RESCUED WITH DIFFICULTY

It Became Necessary to Break the Door of the Prison, When the Man Was Taken Out Badly Roasted—Is Now in Alachua County Jail.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

As the result of a fire, which Charles Thomas, a colored man who was in jail at Alachua on the charge of breaking and entering, kindled to make him comfortable in prison, the negro was brought to this city Monday by Deputy Sheriff M. Marcionny badly burned about the head, neck and hands, and the town jail at Alachua is a total loss, with nothing but charred ruins to tell that a building ever existed there.

According to the story of Officer Marcionny, the negro is by no means a bad character, and it is not believed that he set the jail in order to take chances of burning his way to freedom. He told those who rescued him by knocking in the door, after the building was too far gone to save it, that he felt cold, and that he had built the fire in order to make himself comfortable. He was the only prisoner in the jail at the time, and when taken from the place was badly scared.

Thomas is now in the Alachua county jail, where he still has the charge of breaking and entering hanging over him. Officer Marcionny does not look upon the matter seriously, as he declares, from what he can learn, that the negro was only taking his share of a lot of corn which he was under the impression justly belonged to him, having farmed on "shares" with his step-father. It appears that his step-father's corn was attached by law, without reference to that of his own, which was in the same barn, and it was while trying to rescue his own property that he was arrested by complaint of parties interested in same, which had been affected by the action in law.

Given Up to Die.

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." Why not let it help you? J. W. McCollum & Co.

THE ROAD WORK IS NOW BEING PUSHED

Supervisor Emerson is Making Fine Progress on Roads.

NINE MILES NOW GRADED

The Majority of Which is Properly Paved With Good Material—At Present Rate, Alachua May Boast Soon as Occupying Front Position.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

At the present rate of road-building, especially in the direction towards Newberry, it will not be long before Alachua county, which seven or eight years ago could not boast of ten miles of hard road in the entire county, will enjoy the distinction of occupying a position in the lead when it comes to good roads. For the past four or five years the county, imbued with a new spirit along these lines, has been busy, with the result that several miles of hard road lead out of Gainesville in every direction, and the good work still goes on.

The latest venture in road-building is the new road towards Newberry, now under course of construction. Supervisor J. R. Emerson, with a large force of men and teams, has been busily engaged for the past few weeks, with the result that he has about nine miles graded now, nearly all of which has been clayed, and will be in good condition as soon as it is packed by usage. This road follows a new right-of-way from Hogtown creek west, which evades the highest hills and shortens the distance between Gainesville and Newberry a little more than a mile, thus affording two marked advantages.

There is the old adage that Rome was not built in a day. Neither can roads be constructed in a day. Road-building is a slow and tedious task, but a task that will last when accomplished, and in the course of time no county in the State can boast of better roads or more of them than Alachua. All that is needed for the accomplishment of this is time—and the commissioners are making the best time they can under the circumstances and conditions.

THIS WAS AN AGED MAN.

Old Colored Man from West End Says He is 107 Years of Age.

"I am a hundred and seven years old, and never had an hour's trouble in my life.

This was a remarkable expression, but it was an expression made in good faith, and with all the sincerity of a man whose expression looked as if he was sincere, from the "free-show" stand of Dr. Livingston, the root and herb doctor, upon the occasion of the last appearance of Dr. Livingston and his show Monday.

This old man, who shows his age only by his bended form, stated that he was born on March 26, 1801, and that he can remember "hearin' de folks talk" about the revolutionary war. He has a brother, who was in the city with him, eighty years of age, and has children older than his brother, as he was married early.

This old man was one of the features of Dr. Livingston's show on Monday, and he attracted a great deal of attention. He declares that he can swear to his age, because it was handed down to him by "de white folks in de Bible."

Dr. Livingston left for Ocala Tuesday, after two weeks spent in this city advertising his remedies. He is a gentleman of pleasing address, of most affable disposition, and made himself quite popular here. His remedies also proved popular, as people were coming for miles around to secure them.

LEWIS FLOWERS' TROUBLE.

Got Mixed Up in a Row at Paradise, and Received Two Bullet Wounds.

From Wednesday's Daily:

As the result of a row which he had with Jim Carson, Lewis Flowers, a negro, was shot twice near Paradise in a row, with the result that he is now laying in a room in this city with two painful wounds—one in his right breast, the other in his left arm.

Both men are negroes, and both are employed by C. E. Dunham, at his sawmill near Paradise. It appears that they became engaged in a row Saturday night in some trivial matter, when it is stated that Carson assaulted Flowers with an ugly looking gun, pumping the contents of two chambers of the pistol into him.

Flowers was brought immediately to this city, where a surgeon was summoned, and administered to the suffering man. The physician states that his condition is not necessarily serious, but that he will be confined to his bed for some time.

Carson made his escape, and has not been captured.

In the Mayor's Court.

From Wednesday's Daily:

The mills of justice were set to grinding in the city court Monday morning, after a Saturday and Sunday rest, when Benjamin Franklin, the fellow with an illustrious name but a complexion about like a pot of black coffee, was arraigned upon a charge of fighting. He pleaded guilty, and was fined $10 and costs.

Lottie Knight, a chocolate-colored damsel of the Seaboard Air Line district, was also arraigned for fighting. She pleaded not guilty, but evidence was introduced which showed beyond a doubt that if she was not fighting she was "playing mighty rough," hence Mayor Thomas required her to pay a fine of $10 and costs.

John Gaines, colored, who was cut in a street row by Anthony Parker, jr., both colored, Friday night, appeared before the court, but Parker, who had given a bond of $25, did not appear. It looked to those in charge of municipal affairs that Parker had jumped his bond and in the event that he does not put in his appearance at the court this morning, it will be so considered and the bond will be forfeited.

Gaines has recovered and will be ready to resume his work in a day or two.

KNIGHTS AT HIGH SPRINGS.

High Springs Lodge Held a District Convention Monday Night.

From Wednesday's Daily:

High Springs Lodge, Knights of Pythias, held a district meeting Monday night, over which District Deputy Grand Chancellor Geo. P. Morris, of the Fifth District, presided.

Quite a number of Pythians from Gainesville attended this meeting. The delegation was headed by Grand Chancellor Louis C. Lynch, who was accompanied by Chancellor Commander W. D. Dickinson, of Mount Vernon Lodge No. 20, and a working team from Mount Vernon Lodge comprising John A. Robertson, L. J. Burkhim, J. H. Morton, R. T. Schafer, J. Manasse, W. P. Coffey, W. H. Gunz, J. It is needless to add that the Knights enjoyed their visit greatly, as High Springs folks enjoy a reputation for hospitality, especially the Knights.

DR. ROGERS IS HOME.

Preached Two Interesting Sermons in Brewton, Ala., Sunday.

Rev. S. B. Rogers, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, has returned from Brewton, Ala., where, on Sunday, he delivered two interesting sermons, morning and night, to large congregations.

Dr. Rogers is well pleased with the Alabama town, where he says the people were very hospitable and friendly to him. Notwitstanding that the town has a population of something like only 3,000, it enjoys the distinction of being the third wealthiest town of proportionate population in the United States, being settled by a very wealthy class of lumber manufacturers.

Brewton is about sixty miles distant from Pensacola, and is most desirably located.

THE COMING MAYORALTY.

As the time draws near for the selection of a mayor and other city officials for the coming year, those most deeply interested in the city and its future welfare have been "scratching their heads," so to speak, and wondering who would succeed Mayor Thomas in this important position, which, especially at this time, means so much to Gainesville.

But the information that it is the general desire of the people that Mayor Thomas continue in office as the head of the city government will be gratifying to those who have labored under the impression that he would probably not consent to run again. The Sun representative has made a canvass of the situation, realizing that the time was short in which a selection should be made, and ascertained that fully eighty per cent of the conservative citizens and business men of the city are heartily in favor of continuing Mayor Thomas in office—in fact, they are going to insist upon his candidacy for another year, notwithstanding the fact that Mayor Thomas would be willing to give way to some other progressive citizen who would consent to sacrifice his personal interests to a certain extent, and devote his time to anything which would tend to benefit the town.

Mayor Thomas has not been consulted in this matter, but he has filled the office with such faithfulness and dignity the past few years, that his withdrawal at this time from active municipal connection would be considered a calamity to this community. That is the position Mayor Thomas occupies in connection with the city, and the people will be loth to permit his withdrawal at this time.

Kentucky will be represented in the United States Senate for six years beginning March 4th, 1909, by W. O. Bradley, Republican, the latter having been elected by the aid of four Democrats. ALACHUA'S MANY PRIZES.

True to its long-time reputation for productiveness of soil and the energy and skill of its citizens, Alachua county received the prize at the great State Fair as being the champion county of Middle Florida. And Alachua gained more than that. It received special prizes as having made the best exhibit of agricultural products, the largest and best display of cotton and the largest and best display of poultry.

Furthermore, individual prizes were won by N. A. Callison, for the largest and best exhibit of live stock with the largest number and variety of entries in the different classes; by J. W. Tench, for the largest and best display of poultry and the finest exhibit of cotton; and by James Chesnut, for the best bale of hay made of the humble beggar weed.

Major Tench, the courteous commissioner for the county, proud of his home and of its magnificent showing, is worthy of all praise for his splendid arrangement and supervision of Alachua's exhibit. It is to such men as he that the State of Florida owes the place it is fast assuming as the one unequalled garden spot of America—a name that means not only honor and fame, but a plentiful flow of gold into the coffers of the people.

And of what vast significance is the fact that this great middle county of the State has presented to the eyes of the thousands of visitors to the fair a prize-winning exhibit of cotton, the king of all the crops of the South—the soft, fleecy staple that clothes the world and will be worth anywhere from $700,000,000 to $900,000,000 to this section for the output of 1908. To excel in its production is a matter worthy of qualified pride and joy, and the people of the whole State will join in praising Alachua for the honor it has achieved.

The people of Florida can do no better thing than turn their attention to the breeding of high-grade live stock. The thoroughbred should be introduced in every suitable section; for it has been clearly demonstrated by actual experiment that live stock of every description flourish in our congenial climate, while feeding upon the healthful pasturage our fertile soil produces in such lavish abundance. That Alachua has been again in the van in exhibiting such admirable specimens of Florida-bred live stock is another feature in its already well-ornamented cap—and a very large and and conspicuous one. Mr. Callison deserves much honor for having done his county proud in this exhibit and should receive constant and enthusiastic encouragement in the splendid work he is performing.

Much praise is also due to J. W. Tench, who showed what splendid poultry can be raised in the State, and to James Chesnut for the fine sample of hay he presented. The former is engaged in raising one of the most palatable and delicate of all meats that satisfy the appetite of fastidious men, while the latter is producing a rich food for the sustenance of cattle—the importance of breeding which in Florida we have already alluded to.—Tampa Tribune.

THE BATTLESHIP SQUADRON.

After considerable discussion it has been decided that the battleship squadron now rounding South America and destined to round the world before returning home, will not be able to accept any of the many hospitable invitations awaiting it after it leaves the shores of the United States. This probably is a wise decision, but it emphasizes the tension between this country and Japan much more than was intended when the decision was announced. The squadron has made a great success of the cruise so far. At all of the South American ports where it has touched or been sighted there have been all sorts of festivities in honor of the visitors. The officers have been feted and the men have been entertained, and the visit of the squadron has done more to cement the friendship of the United States with the countries visited than untold reams of diplomatic exchanges. The sailors have behaved in a way to make the United States proud of them. That is something to the good also, for Jack ashore is not proverbially a peaceful citizen. Since it has been known that it was to be a globe-circling voyage the nations of the world have been anxious to do their share of the entertaining. The Commonwealth of Australia communicated with the State Department saying that they wanted to give the fleet a welcome that would make all previous welcomes look like base immitations. Yokahane was anxious also to do the polite thing by them, and this was just where the hitch came. Entertainments could not be accepted on the voyage home and pointedly cut out Japan. The fleet could not be sent to Japanese waters without more risk of unpleasant complications between the sailors and the natives than this Government cared to risk. So it was decided to cut out all receptions on the home voyage on the rather lame excuse of expense. Of course any old excuse would do, but the fear of trouble in Japan was the real one. So the fleet will modestly touch at only the most necessary coaling stations till Gibraltar is reached, and this being international territory, there doubtless will be some merry-making and the crews will be allowed to blow off steam. But the Oriental precaution is significant.

FLORIDA'S WM. D. BLOXHAM.

(Tallahassee True Democrat.)

Well does this writer remember the trying days of reconstruction, being an apprentice and office-boy for the late Charles Edgar Dyke, editor of The Tallahassee Floridian, one of the purest and best, and most valuable statesmen the South ever had, and young though we were in those days, well to do we remember the work of Bloxham, Dyke, Crawford, McClellan, Perry, Pasco, Fleming, and hundreds of others of the very best Floridians, who took an active interest in overthrowing "carpet-bag" government in our State; therefore, it is always with the greatest pleasure that we see such as the following, from The Jacksonville Metropolis, in print:

"It is said that a Princeton graduate who died recently was the inventor of the term, 'carpet-bagger.' He was Col. Joseph Hodgson, '56, of New Orleans, prominent at the law and in politics, a Confederate colonel, and editor at various times of The Kansas City Enquirer, The Montgomery Mail, The New Orleans Picayune and The Mobile Register. It was while he was editor of The Montgomery Mail and engaged in the discussion of the reconstruction acts, that he invented the epithet 'carpet-bagger,' and first used it against the members of the Alabama convention of 1867. This may be true, but the name became very general throughout the South during the reconstruction period. The term was never used more forcibly, however, by any than Ex-Governor William D. Bloxham of Florida in his campaigns. He could sink it deeper into the minds of his hearers than any man we ever heard when portraying their evils in Florida, and no one was more responsible for the overthrow of the carpet-bag government than the peerless Bloxham."

This cheerful offer of C. W. Morse to "explain everything", will doubtless bring him a lot of offers of financial assistance from some of the gentlemen who might get involved in the explanation.

Capt. W. J. Tucker of Fort Pierce, who is a veteran of the Civil War, and who draws a pension under the blanket pension law passed by the recent Legislature, has donated his pension to the home for old soldiers in Jacksonville. Captain Tucker does not need the pension, having a sufficient income for his needs, and this generosity on his part shows that his heart beats with the right number of thumps per minute.—DeLand News.

WHITEFLY CONTROL

—Introducing The Friendly Fungi—

By E. W. Berger, Florida Agricultural Experiment Station.

PINNING FUNGUS-BEARING LEAVES.

The leaf-pinning method of introducing the fungus parasites of the citrus whitefly has given excellent results during the warm months of the year with the Red and Yellow Fungi, and some good starts of the Brown Fungus have also been obtained. During the cooler months, however, from October onwards, the writer has not found this method so successful as the spore-spraying method (which was described in Bulletin 88 and in Press Bulletin 80). This is chiefly (it is believed) due to the absence in the cool season of the adult whitefly and perhaps other insects, which presumably aid in the dissemination of the fungus spores. About a dozen fungus-bearing leaves may be pinned to the under surface of the leaves of a whitefly-infested tree, taking care to pin them where the immature insects, the adults, or both, are most abundant. The writer has always pinned the fungus-bearing leaves with the fungus side down, this being their natural position. The leaf-pinning method is also applicable to the White-fringe and the Cinnamon Fungi, which were recently described as parasitic upon the whitefly.

TREE-PLANTING METHOD.

Small whitefly-infested trees, having an abundance of a whitefly-destroying fungus on their leaves, have been temporarily planted by some citrus growers so that their foliage was in contact with that of the trees into which it was desired to introduce the fungus. This method of introducing the fungi (although good) is not so practical as either the spore-spraying or the leaf-pinning methods, and is much more expensive. It is applicable to all the fungi which are known to be parasitic on the whitefly.

THE FUNGI LIVE ONLY ON THE WHITEFLY.

These five parasitic fungi, so far as is known, probably live, in a natural state, only on the immature young of the whitefly (which feed on the under surface of leaves), so that there would be nothing for them to live on in an uninfested tree; it is therefore quite obvious that it would be futile to introduce fungus into a tree not infested with whitefly. It is best to wait, before introducing fungus, until the whitefly (larvae, pupae, or adults) can be found, at least by the dozen, under many of the leaves of a newly-infested tree. It is also clear that it would frequently lead to a waste of fungus and of labor were one to treat every single tree in a grove which was just becoming infested with whitefly, regardless of the amount of whitefly on each tree.

WHEN TO INTRODUCE FUNGUS.

"Seed fungus" becomes abundant about midsummer and lasts until midwinter and later, although some can generally be obtained at all times. The best weather conditions for introducing fungus are met with from about June to the end of August. Since this rainy period is also the time when seed-fungus is abundant it is the best time in which to introduce fungus. It is advisable, however, to introduce fungus at any other times when "seed fungus" can be obtained, using only the spore-spraying method during the cooler months, but employing any one of the three methods during the warmer months or when the adult whiteflies are swarming about the trees.

PLAN OF CAMPAIGN.

The writer's plan of campaign, based upon experiments in the field, is as follows:—If a grove is thoroughly infested with whitefly, and sufficient seed-fungus is available, introduce fungus into all the trees; but if the supply of seed-fungus is limited, distribute it here and there throughout the grove, so that there will be a great many centers of infection from which the fungus can spread. It may be considered advisable to treat only a few trees in each row with fungus, and it may only be possible to treat some branches of each of these trees; but any scheme of distribution that will give the fungi a good chance to spread to all parts of a grove will suffice. Later on, when more seed-fungus is available, the trees or parts of trees not previously treated may be attended to. A second, and even a third or fourth treatment may be given to the trees in order to get the quickest possible dissemination of fungus. So long as only a few fungus pustules are visible on those leaves of a tree which bear the most fungus, it will be advisable to introduce more fungus, especially should an abundance of seed-fungus be readily available. The greater the amount of fungus growth which is successfully started in a grove by artificial means, the more rapid will be the destruction of the whitefly. Whiteflies have the habit of congregating on water-sprouts and other tender growth of citrus, consequently we should give particular attention to introducing the fungi into such parts of the trees. The work should be done methodically and not in a haphazard way.

The plan of campaign for a grove just becoming infested with whitefly, or only infested in part, would be to introduce fungus into all those trees sufficiently infested (that is, whitefly by the dozen on the leaves), and later on into other trees as soon as they become sufficiently infested. Incidentally, the trees may be fertilized a little more heavily.

WHERE TO OBTAIN FUNGUS.

Fungus can probably be obtained at the following places:—Manatee, Bradentown, Palmetto, Sarasota, Fort Myers, Buckingham, Orlando, Oviedo, and Titusville.

If you want the most reliable information about the tariff, you should write to Governor Douglas of Brockton, Mass., for his published speeches. They contain the strongest argument for tariff reform, supported by facts, even put forth by anyone.

The increase in the pay of members of the School Board and County Commissioners promises to result in an extra large crop of candidates for these offices.

It is reported that there will be at least four candidates for the office of County Treasurer at the coming primary.

FORMAL OPENING OF WINTER CHAUTAUQUA

Large Audience Gathered at First Exercises Monday Night.

ALL PRESENT WERE DELIGHTED

Short Address of Welcome by Dr. Strouse and Others, Followed by Grand Concert by Celebrated White Rose Orchestra—Today's Program.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun.

The fifth annual session of the Florida Winter Chautauqua formally opened at the Tabernacle Monday night, and the first entertainment was attended by a large, representative and appreciative audience.

The exercises opened with a brief address of welcome by Dr. Clarence B. Strouse, Chautauqua president, and others, which was followed by a grand concert by the White Rose Concert Company, of Wheeling, W. Va. This concert company is a most remarkable one, being a family affair, composed of seven members of one family. They are all polished musicians, and have made a record on the Chautauqua platform throughout the United States.

All who attended the exercises Monday night were well pleased, and feel that they will secure full benefit from the excellent program which has been prepared throughout the Chautauqua.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

The second day of the Florida Winter Chautauqua was fairly well attended, and those present enjoyed the exercises, which were both entertaining and instructive.

The exercises were opened in the morning by Dr. Gross Alexander, who delivered a Bible lecture. At 10:30 o'clock Dr. Carolyn Geisel and her assistant gave a demonstration of the School of Health and Domestic Science, employing various subjects along healthful lines of eating and living.

In the afternoon there was a grand promenade concert by the White Rose Orchestra, who also opened the entertainment in the evening. At the evening entertainment Dr. Richard Wilkinson delivered a most interesting lecture on the life and character of Gen. Robert E. Lee.

The crowds at the Chautauqua sessions are not as large as had been hoped for, but the season is yet in its infancy, and it is anticipated that the interest will increase from day to day, as the program is very interesting.

The Bible lecture by Dr. Alexander Wednesday morning was full of interest. This was followed by a lecture in the School of Health and Domestic Science by Dr. Carolyn Geisel and her assistant.

In the afternoon the White Rose Orchestra gave another of its delightful concerts, after which there was a reading by Cora Mel Patten of Chicago. The Rose Orchestra appeared again in the evening, which was followed by a lecture, "Damon and Pythias," by Richard Wilkinson.

The program today will be as follows:

9:30 a. m., Biblical hour.

10:30 a. m., School of Health and Domestic Science.

3 p. m., Concert by Rose Orchestra, to be followed by interpretative reading, "Arms and the Man," by Cora Mel Patten.

8 p. m., Concert by Rose Orchestra, reading by Margaret Dell Adams, and lecture, "The Preacher and His Fun," by Rev. W. K. Piner.

No admission will be charged to the morning exercises.

SAVED A $170 MARE WHEN A VETERINARY FAILED TO CURE HER.

"While serving as an officer on the steamship Montezuma, which carried horses and mules to South Africa," writes Mr. G. H. H. Rowe of Sparta Ill., "I saw Sloan's Sure Cure Colic Cure used on the horses and never a case of colic prove too much for it.

"We had 1,250 horses on board for over a month, so that we had a good opportunity to test the remedy thoroughly.

"The veterinary used Sloan's Liniment, also, for sore shoulders and sprains, and the horses were landed in a particularly fine condition.

"I know of another case here in Sparta, Ill., where Sloan's Sure Cure Colic Cure saved a $170 mare after the veterinary had failed to cure her."

NEW CIGAR FACTORY.

Rumored That Waldo Man Will Soon Establish Another Factory Here.

Realizing the great advantages of Gainesville as a manufacturing center, L. A. Geiger of Waldo has decided to establish a cigar factory here, which will give the city two cigar factories, the La Mantanona, owned by H. S. Thomas, having been in successful operation here for the past eighteen months.

Mr. Geiger, who is a practical cigar maker of long experience, proposes to begin on a small scale at first, employing only three or four men, but believes, with the advantages afforded here, the business can eventually be built up to one of considerable magnitude.

All manufacturing enterprises are welcomed to Gainesville with open arms, and it is gratifying to know that, realizing this fact, they are coming almost every day.

MRS. PONS BETTER.

Lady Who Had Misfortune to be Shot at Fairbanks is Doing Well.

Mrs. John Pons of Fairbanks, who had the misfortune to be shot by her sister-in-law while the two were playing with a shotgun which they thought to be unloaded a few days ago, and from the result of which it became necessary to amputate her right lower limb, is reported as getting along as nicely as possible under the circumstances, although the lady has suffered a great deal of pain.

The attending physician reports the condition of his patient good, and she will recover in due time.

This accident was deeply regretted by the numerous friends and acquaintances of Mrs. Pons, but not more so than the lady in the hands of whom the gun was discharged.

PROF. CHAPMAN'S LECTURE.

Good Crowd Attended High School Auditorium Tuesday Night.

A fair-sized audience was present at the auditorium of the Gainesville Graded and High School Tuesday night to hear the lecture on the Birds of Florida and the Bahamas, which was delivered in a clever and instructive manner.

Prof. Chapman is one of the most widely-posted men in the country on bird life, and his remarks were highly appreciated by those who heard them.

Goodwin in Politics.

The friends of J. A. Goodwin realize that he is "always into something," but will probably be surprised to learn that he is about to break into the political arena.

It is reported that Mr. Goodwin will be a candidate for alderman and his platform will be along the line of "squelching" the telephones on the square, and giving justice to those property owners who have been required to pave streets and put down sidewalks on the streets abutting their belongings.

If Mr. Goodwin makes the race on this platform, there is little doubt but that he will be elected.

SUNDAY BIG DAY AMONG CHURCHES

Three New Voices Greeted the Congregations Here That Day.

DR. LEY MADE A FINE TALK

Eminent Divine and Field Worker for Methodist College Entertained Large Congregation—Dr. Lambert Preached—Tabernacle at Night.

Sunday was a feast-day for churchgoers of Gainesville, as the day afforded almost a general change of program in the line of religious work, with the result that large numbers turned out to hear new preachers and voices.

At the First Methodist church, in the morning, Rev. John B. Ley, field agent of the Southern College, Florida's Methodist college, filled the pulpit, preaching on the subject of "Religious Education." As usual, his sermon was one of great interest, and commanded the closest attention of the large congregation which was present to greet him. Dr. Ley, who is an "old Alachua county boy," as he expresses it, is a most earnest, fluent talker, and never fails to interest his hearers. He was working in the interest of his college, and was quite successful in securing donations and subscriptions.

At the Baptist church in the morning Rev. W. R. Lambert, president of the Anti-Saloon League, filled the pulpit, the pastor, Rev. S. B. Rogers, being absent. Dr. Lambert is also a good speaker, and was greeted by a large congregation.

There were no services at the Methodist, Baptist or Presbyterian churches Sunday evening, owing to the services at the Tabernacle, which marked an informal opening of the Florida Winter Chautauqua. The congregations of these churches attended the Tabernacle services, where Dr. Gross Alexander of Nashville, editor of The Southern Review, author and preacher, and a man of eloquence, delivered a fine sermon on "The Bible as a Relation." For nearly an hour he entertained his hearers in a most interesting manner, which demonstrated the fact of his ability. Dr. Alexander will have charge of the Bible lectures during the Chautauqua, which will be held in the morning at 9:30 o'clock, and to which no admission will be charged.

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.

LaCrosse Baptist Sunday School Will Celebrate in Short Time.

Captain H. C. Parker of LaCrosse, one of the leading spirits of the county, was in the city on business Monday.

Captain Parker, who was for many years a member of the School Board, and is well known throughout the entire county for the good he has accomplished, founded the LaCrosse Baptist Sunday school twenty-five years ago, and has been its popular and efficient superintendent ever since the school was organized.

It has been the custom of Captain Parker each year to observe as an annual reunion, and upon this occasion he expects to eclipse anything ever given in his church.

An elaborate program of a literary and musical nature has been arranged for this service, which will be honored with the presence of Dr. Nunnally, president of Columbia College, Lake City, who will deliver an address on "The Importance of Religious Education," and "Character Building."

These exercises will be held on the first Sunday in April, which will be April 5.

A remarkable fact of the LaCrosse Sunday school is that, out of its twenty-five years of existence, the school has met every Sunday with two exceptions, one on account of very inclement weather, another on account of some special occasion. This is certainly a wonderful record.

ITCHING ECZEMA FIFTY-FIVE YEARS

Suffered Torments from Birth—Boils Formed as Big as Walnuts—In Frightful Condition and Could Hardly Work—Tried All Kinds of Remedies to No Avail—At Last

WHOLLY CURED IN 8 MONTHS BY CUTICURA

"I had an itching, tormenting eczema over since I came into the world, and I am now a man fifty-five years old. I tried all kinds of medicines I heard of, but found no relief. I was truly in a frightful condition. At last my blood was so bad that I broke out all over with red and white boils, which kept growing until they were as big as walnuts, causing great pain and misery. I thought they would take the skin off my whole body, but I kept from scratching as well as I could. I was so run down that I could hardly do my work. Mr. Nelson R. Burnett recommended the use of Cuticura Remedies, telling me he was confident they would benefit and, in time, cure me. I used the Cuticura Soap, Ointment, Resolvent, and Pills for about eight months, and I can truthfully say I am cured. I cordially recommend Cuticura Remedies to all who are afflicted the same as I was, believing that, if they will use them according to directions, they will find them all they are represented to be. Any one doubting the truth of the above can write to Mr. Burnett, who will cheerfully vouch for my statements.

"Hale Bordwell, R. F. D. 3, Cedar Corners, Tipton, Ia., Aug. 17, 1907."

"I cheerfully endorse the above testimonial. It is the truth. I know Mr. Bordwell and know the condition he was in. He never tires of praising the Cuticura Remedies.

SANTA FE NEWS.

Santa Fe, March 2.—The farmers in part are still holding their cotton and are not discouraged, but are bending their energies preparing their land for another crop. Judging by the amount of cotton fertilizer that is being delivered at this place the crop will be as large as last year. Let us hope that the seasons will be favorable and that the farmers may find their profit in the quantity of good things produced and not have to rely altogether for favorable returns or high prices.

S. L. Crews, one of our leading farmers, who was forty-four years old on the 29th ult., celebrated his eleventh birthday. His birthday comes every four years—Leap year.

Mrs. W. R. McGregor, after a short visit to Live Oak, has returned. Her many friends welcome her back.

E. L. Blitch, the jolly postmaster and merchant here, has returned from Tampa. He attended the convention of postmasters there and reports a good meeting.

We are glad to see our honored citizen, Ivin Holder, out again, after a prolonged attack of lagrippe.

A masked party was given at the home of Hon. T. A. Doke last week, which proved to be not only a success but was enjoyed by all lovers of good music, after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. W. M. Blitch, who has been visiting in the University City, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Rivers, for the past week, has returned home.

The farmers as a rule are too busy to talk politics here yet, and seem to take but little interest. They think that this year will turn out one of the largest crops of candidates of any past year.

In Memorium.

Mr. Geo. Edwin Chisman, of Irvine, Fla., died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crisman, Micanopy, at 8:30 o'clock Thursday evening, February 6, after an illness of two weeks with appendicitis and pneumonia. Deceased was 25 years of age.

The funeral was held at the Methodist church, 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Rev. H. T. Sistrunk, pastor of the Methodist church, and Rev. G. B. Thrasher, pastor of the Baptist church, officiated. The funeral was well attended, as a last mark of respect.

George was a member of the Methodist Church for thirteen years, and always loved to attend. During his illness he was a great sufferer, but the Lord did not forsake him. His cheerfulness in affliction proved that his trust was in Him, who maketh the clouds his chariot.

He talked beautifully of the Heavenly home. He said, "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. His mind was clear almost to the very last, and all fear of death was taken away. Only a few day before he died, he said all was right. He always wanted scripture read to him and prayers offered.

George was good in every respect to his father and mother. He was popular and loved by many friends. Besides, he leaves a wife and two sweet little children, father, mother, brother and sister to mourn their sad loss. He was the youngest of the three children, and first to go, but we know where to find him.

May our Father's tender love comfort them all with bright hopes of a happy meeting over yonder.

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God."

"Col." Story is Home.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

"Col." Story, a well-known character on the streets of Gainesville, but who has been absent "for his health" for the past few months, has returned.

"Col." in this instance is an abbreviation for "colored." Story has just returned from Chattahoochee, where he says he has been for examination in the Hospital for the Insane, but, with that characteristic which has made him a central figure here, he almost succeeded in convincing the examiners that it was not he, but they, who needed the examination for mental qualifications, hence he was released.

BEAUTIFYING FLORIDA TOWNS

By JOHN BELLING
Florida Agricultural Experiment Station

It pays for a town to be noted for its handsome trees, or for the flowering shrubs in its gardens and public squares—this has an effect on the increase of trade and on the rise in real estate; it pays for a house to be surrounded by a well-kept lawn and by equally well-kept shrubs and flowers. Such things have an influence on its selling value; it pays for a railroad company to make its depots attractive by planting palms, hardy bamboos, or flowering shrubs about them—for often all that travelers see of a town is the depot, and the idea of the town which stays in their memory is just what they have noticed as they passed by. At a trifling expense a railroad journey in Florida might be made nearly as attractive as a similar journey in Japan.

A citizen of a Florida town might perhaps regard himself as owing it to the general welfare of his town to ornament his house-lot with neatly-kept shrubs and flowers, as well as with a smaller or larger stretch of green lawn. If everyone did his own part the combined result would be surprising.

It is usually a mistake to have a large tree in a small garden; its roots exhaust the soil, and its foliage obstructs the light. Shrubs in a garden should be spaced according to their individual needs, so that each has its due share of the soil. To be well suited for general use in our gardens, a flowering shrub should be (1) easy to multiply by cutting, (2) a quick grower so that it soon flowers, (3) flowering nearly all the year, (4) not much injured by any frosts which occur here, and (5) ornamental when not in bloom.

The oleander, if well pruned and manured, seems to meet these requirements for Florida perhaps better than most other flowering shrubs, though in the North it may be damaged by frosts in exposed situations. Leafy cuttings make roots readily in sand or even in bottles of water. The plants will flower well in the third year. Their foliage is ornamental, evergreen, and not injured by caterpillars. The single or double flowers of good varieties are in long-lasting clusters of a pink, red, white or cream color, and strongly or delicately scented. When the long stems are regularly pruned back after flowering, the shrubs grow bushy and dome-shaped, and produce many spreading branches, so as to hide the bare stems down to the ground. A row of choice oleanders, six feet or more apart, well-manured, well-watered and well-pruned (especially the last), will cost but little, and will have a highly ornamental appearance along a fence or path.

The everblooming roses are naturally favorite flowering shrubs in Florida. Roses will not bloom plentifully unless well-supplied with manure and water. Their rather unsightly branches must be kept within bounds by cutting out all that are too thin or too old to bear good flowers, and by shortening others whose too rapid growth tends to give the bushes a ragged look. When planting a young rose, a hole at least four feet square and two feet deep should be dug, and filled in with a mixture of leaf mould or well-rotted manure, good soil, wood-ashes, and a handful or two of basic phosphate and of sulphate of potash. The surface should be well manured at least once a year. To water rosebushes in the dry season, make a ridge round about each bush, two or more feet away. Then let the water run in, until the soil is saturated as far down as the deepest roots; which may require half an hour or more for each bush. This may be done once or more times a week, but not every day. Rose cuttings can usually be rooted in sand with the greatest ease, hence anyone can make a garden with rosebushes at no expense. Of those roses he has tried in not climates, the writer prefers La France, Golden Gate, Perle des Jardins, Meteor, Etoile de Lyon, Maman Cochet, Helen Gould and Cornelia Cook.

The crape myrtle is another flowering shrub well adapted to the whole of Florida. It can be readily multiplied by leafy cuttings in sand; it begins to bloom when quite young, and the warmer the climate the more nearly continuous is its bloom. But its tendency to send up long straight sticks with the flowers on the top must be kept back by pruning, if a well-shaped shrub is to be grown. When pruned from the start, it becomes thickly branched, and covered with bloom below as well as above. The pink, red, and white varieties make an ornamental hedge-row when planted fairly close together and kept well trimmed, watered, and manured.

The large-flowered jasmine (Catalonian or Royal jasmine) will grow from Jacksonville to Key West, and stands several degrees of frost. It can be readily multiplied by leafy cuttings ripe enough to show leafbuds distinctly. Its white flowers, from which the inimitable jasmine perfume is extracted, scent a garden deliciously on summer evenings. If its long trailing stems are pruned every year, it may be grown as an upright shrub, and flowers most abundantly.

These four flowering shrubs require all the sunlight they can get, even in Florida, and should not be planted so close to the north, east, or west sides of a house as to be in shade for part of the day. A sufficient number of flowering shrubs, well provided with light, water and fertilizers, and judiciously pruned, will beautify any garden; especially when alocasias, ferns, hardy bamboos and palms are planted to form a background.

A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them Remedies of Known Composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the fullest scrutiny.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, bad liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents and that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the uses of not a few of our most valuable native, medicinal plants was gained from the Indians.

As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

Chipley, Fla., Feb. 21, 1906.

To The Evening News, Pensacola:

The people's friend and candidate for Railroad Commissioner, Julius Salomon, was in our little city a few days ago shaking hands with his many friends. Uncle Jule, as we call him, is too well known to be commented upon, but this section knows that he is the right man for commissioner and he will doubtless go solid from this entire section. If ever a man had experience and observation from traveling, besides the well-balanced faculty in the way and knowing what would be equality and justice to all, it is Uncle Jule Salomon, and as to politics he stands unquestioned as a most staunch Democrat. Yours truly,

J. K. PETERS.

try the following delightful desserts:

To any English Walnut meats,
Add Sun-Kist orange sections,
Add pineapple JELL-O, any flavor.

Dissolve the JELL-O in a pint of boiling water. When cool and just commencing to thicken stir in the fruit and nuts. Serve with Whipped Cream. Delicious. The ingredients for JELL-O can be bought at any good grocery. This makes enough dessert for a large family and is very economical.

PHOTOGRAPHY.

Photography today is an economic and social necessity in every community. It maintains the memory and affections of family life through the picture it makes, and which we could not now do without. How often is regret expressed that no picture exists of some friend or relative who is no longer with us! Sometimes, indeed, the camera has to intrude upon the sacredness of the death chamber itself when relatives feel that a photograph in such circumstances is better than none at all. Do not procrastinate. Be wise and "secure the shadow ere the substance fades."

You can get a picture from locket to life-size at Seckle's Studio.

LITERARY SOCIETY.

Literary Society of Gainesville High School Had Fine Meeting.

The second meeting of the Gainesville High School Literary Society was held in the auditorium yesterday afternoon at 2:30, and all those present enjoyed the nice program, which was both entertaining and instructive.

The exercises opened with the roll call, and all members responded with quotations from Byron, after which the following program was nicely carried out:

Life of Byron—Earle Kelley.

Debate—"That Necessity Is the Mother of Invention." Affirmative, Henry Baker, Ida McDonald; Negative, Alexander Harper, Julia Bunch.

Recitation—Dallas Bowers.

Essay—Sam Mixson.

Current Events—Casper Peeler, Tom McBeath.

Newspaper—Dalton Roseborough.

The debate was well discussed on both sides, and almost every point possible was brought out. So closely was the subject debated that the judges were unable to render a decision for either side. All showed their ability as speakers, and we all agree with Henry Baker, that Earle Taylor is genuine. Why? Ask one of the members of the society.

BEST OF PROOF

That Hyomei Will Cure All Forms of Catarrhal Diseases.

Testimonials could be printed by the thousand, many of them from Gainesville and nearby towns, saying that Hyomei absolutely cures all catarrhal troubles. The best proof of its unusual curative powers is the guarantee that J. W. McCollum & Co. give with every outfit they sell: "Money back if Hyomei does not do all that is claimed for it."

Hyomei is not a secret remedy. Its formula is freely given to physicians who want to know what they are using when they prescribe Hyomei. It is guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drug Law by Serial No. 1415.

There is no dangerous stomach drugging when Hyomei is used. Its healing medication is breathed through a neat pocket inhaler, reaching every part of the air passages, destroying all catarrhal germs and curing the disease.
